

Kona, Hawaii'

The Big Island of Hawaii, a land of fire and ice. You can go from warm, sunny beaches to snow-capped peaks in one day. It is the only place where you can ski in the morning and Scuba dive in warm water in the afternoon. The volcano, Mauna Loa, is active and is an amazing flight via helicopter. Be sure to, after taking in all the underwater sights, go for a drive to the small mountain-side villages and experience Kona coffee.
